

Dr. Anita Dhurve

Dr Anita Dhurve is working as Lecturer in the Department since 2003. She did her Post Graduation and PhD from Barkatullah University and qualified NET lecturership examination. Her major thrust areas are Rural and Tribes females. She has published several research papers and guided several MPhil students. Recently she has been awarded post doctoral fellowship by state government to work in abroad. She is also member of the Indian Sociological Society.